Pursuant to NRS 241.020(6), supporting material is made available to the general public at the same time it is provided to the Oversight Group.

Order of Business: Discussion may be delayed on any item on this agenda, and items on this agenda may be taken out of order, combined with other items and discussed as a block, or removed from the agenda. Items scheduled to be heard at a specific time will be heard no earlier than the stated time, but may be heard later.

Public Comment: A person wishing to address the Oversight Group shall submit a "Request to Speak" form to the recording secretary. Public comment, whether on action items or general public comment, is limited to three (3) minutes per person. Unused time may not be reserved by the speaker, nor allocated to another speaker. No action may be taken on a matter raised under general public comment until the matter is included on an agenda as an item on which action may be taken. The presiding officer may prohibit comment if the content is willfully disruptive of the meeting by being repetitious, slanderous, offensive, inflammatory, irrational or amounting to personal attacks or interfering with the rights of other speakers. Any person making willfully disruptive remarks while addressing the Oversight Group or while attending the Oversight Group meeting may be removed from the room by the presiding officer, and the person may be barred from further audience before the Oversight Group during that session of the Oversight Group meeting. See NRS 241.030(4)(a); RMC §§8.12.024, 8.12.027; Nevada Attorney OMLO 2001-22/AG File No. 00-047. (April 27, 2001); Nevada Open Meeting Law Manual, §7.06. Examples of disruptive conduct include, without limitation, yelling, stamping of feet, whistles, applause, heckling, name calling, use of profanity, personal attacks, physical intimidation, threatening use of physical force, assault, battery, or any other acts intended to impede the meeting or infringe on the rights of the Oversight Group, staff, or meeting participants.
